Course Number (example: COMM 300) (example: COMM 456)

Note: The university catalogue states that courses cannot be taken out of sequence: “Prerequisites are courses that must be passed and/or specific background that must be demonstrated prior to advancing to the next course in a prescribed sequence of courses. Passage of appropriate examinations or consent of the academic unit offering the course will waive prerequisites. However, a prerequisite course within the same discipline taken after the higher level course has been passed will not be available for unit or grade point credit.” (2016-2017 University Catalogue — Academic Policies: Registration).
